

Pastor Dexter E. Edmund

Dexter Edmund serves as the Lead Pastor of the New Dimensions Church in Lanham, Maryland.

A graduate of Morgan State University, Pastor continues to perfect and sharpen his leadership gifts through reading and directed study in the Word with assistance from a number of spiritual fathers, mothers and mentors. In December 2011 Pastor Edmund completed a Masters degree from Southeastern University in Lakeland, Florida.

Pastor Dexter has traveled extensively as a Kingdom Ambassador sharing the good news of deliverance, restoration and forgiveness to many who have been blessed by his kind, thoughtful and encouraging style of ministry. He is often asked about the many churches he visits, "I enjoy the fellowship that traveling in ministry gives me, and yet there is nothing that blesses me more than to serve the New Dimensions family".

It is this universal affection for the people of God everywhere and in every place that is the heart of Pastor Dexter's ministry, and is always evident when he teaches. He has embraced his "jubilee" year with passion and a commitment to learn, grow and be more in the Kingdom.

Pastor Dexter has been married to Lady Yolanda for 27 years and are the blessed parents of 3 wonderful children Dexter Jr. (Dejay) Daniel and DeAnn.
